

BUSINESS EMAIL COMPROMISE RISK

Criminal syndicates may attempt to induce you to make payments into bank accounts which do not belong to Murrion or its associated providers and are controlled by criminals. These frauds are typically perpetrated using emails or letters that appear materially identical to letters or emails that may be sent to you by Murrion or its associated providers. Please take proper care in checking that these emails do emanate from Murrion or its associated providers. Before making any payment to Murrion or its associated providers please ensure that you verify that the account into which payment will be made is a legitimate bank account of Murrion or its associated providers. If you are not certain of the correctness of the bank account, you may contact Murrion and request to speak to the person attending to your matter. They will assist you in confirming the correct bank details. Unfortunately, Murrion does not accept responsibility for any incorrect payments that are made into an account that is not under care of Murrion or its associated providers. Murrion will not advise of any change in bank details by way of an email or other electronic communication. If you should receive any communication of this nature, please report it to the person attending to your matter.

EMAIL DISCLAIMER

This message and any accompanying attachment(s) may contain confidential and copyrighted information. If you are not the addressee(s) indicated in this message or responsible for delivery of the message to the addressee(s), do not copy or deliver this message or the attachment(s) to any other person including the intended recipient. Please destroy this message and notify Murrion, if this is the case. Any comments and statements contained within this message should be seen as opinions only and not statements of fact. Murrion will not accept liability for any loss suffered as a result of relying on this message unless the message indicates that the information is subject to an express warranty and has been authenticated by a digital signature capable of verifying the integrity of the message. An e-mail is deemed to have been sent as soon as it is reflected in our service provider's mail server logs and is deemed to be received once we have either sent a delivery receipt or confirmed receipt by way of e-mail.
